

SUCCESSIVITY

GET TO KNOW
THE GUIDING AND SCOUTING LEVEL

I know the Fundamentals of the Guiding and Scouting and know safety instructions. Intended for those who have joined as an adult.

- › Welcome to the Guiding and Scouting training

SMALL GROUP
LEADER TRAINING

OPEN BADGES

LEARNING IN TASK

TRAININGS BY OTHER ORGANISATIONS

VBL

BASIC LEVEL

1

I understand the Fundamentals of the Guiding and Scouting and gain skills to operate in the local group. I am a leader of children and young people.

- › Cub Scout / Adventurer Leader training
- › Training for Small Group Leader Trainers
- › Scout Leader Basic Training

SUPPLEMENTARY TRAINING

- › Local group communications training
- › Local group finances training

- › Camping training
- › Winter camping training
- › Boat navigator training
- › Check-point leader training

2

I know how to apply the Fundamentals of the Guiding and Scouting into my operations. I gain skills to be a leader in the local group and district level. I am a leader of the youth and adults.

- › Adult Support Training
- › Youth programme leader training
- › Leader of volunteers training
- › Local Group Leader training
- › Train the trainers training
- › Operating in the organisation training
- › Advanced Training for Guide and Scout Leaders (Wood Badge)

SKILLS TRAINING

- › Training for supervisors of leadership task on Scout Leader Basic Training
- › Rambling training
- › Archipelago skipper training
- › Organising committee training

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

3

ADVANCED LEVEL

I know how to evaluate and develop Guiding and Scouting operations. I gain skills for the varied tasks of the district and national organisation. I lead and coach leaders.

- › Coach training
- › Regional Training Commissioner training

- › Mentor training
- › Training for Wood Badge project coaches

EXPEDITION

SEA

COMPETITION

SUPPLEMENTARY SKILLS TRAINING

- › Survival training

